THE NEW MEXICO JUDICIARY

The Mission of the New Mexico Judiciary is to protect the rights and liberties of the people of New Mexico guaranteed by the Constitution and laws of the State of New Mexico and the United States; to resolve legal disputes fairly, and to ensure access to justice for all.

The Supreme Court is the highest court of the Judicial Branch of State Government. The Supreme Court's mandatory, exclusive appellate jurisdiction includes:

- Capital appeals, appeals from the Public Regulation Commission, and appeals in election challenges.
- Supervisory control over all other courts.
- Regulating attorneys licensed to practice law in New Mexico, and imposing discipline against attorneys and judges for professional misconduct.
- Responsibility for statewide administrative oversight of the entire Judiciary, including the promulgation of rules of practices and procedure and the appointment and oversight over committees, boards, and commissioners.

The Court of Appeals is New Mexico's intermediate appellate court with jurisdiction over the entire State. The Court of Appeals reviews appeals in all cases, except criminal cases involving sentences of death or life imprisonment, appeals from the Public Regulation Commission, and cases involving habeas corpus. The Court of Appeals has two locations, Santa Fe and Albuquerque.
