THE NEW MEXICO JUDICIARY

The Mission of the New Mexico Judiciary is to protect the rights and liberties of the people of New Mexico guaranteed by the Constitution and laws of the State of New Mexico and the United States; to resolve legal disputes fairly, and to ensure access to justice for all.

GENERAL STATEMENT OF DUTIES

Acting under court direction the appellate mediator plans, organizes and directs the activities of the Appellate Mediation Office, including supervision of staff, conducting legal research and case analysis, and mediation caseload management.

EXAMPLES OF JOB DUTIES

- The Appellate Mediator is responsible for reviewing case materials and conducting legal research and factual analysis in preparation for the mediation.
- Coordinates with an administrative assistant for consideration of cases assigned to the Court's general calendar for mediation.
- Responds to requests from counsel for mediation, and accepts referrals of cases from judges and the Court's Prehearing attorneys.
- Schedules the mediation conferences and sends out notices of mediation to counsel.
- Records statistics related to the operations of the Appellate Mediation Office, including settlement rates, disposition time frames, and providing the Court with written reports on the Appellate Mediation Office activities.
- Oversees and assesses the appropriateness of mediation or other dispute resolution processes for a case.
- Conducts mediation conferences or coordinates with counsel to arrange for other forms of alternative dispute resolution.
- Leads joint and private discussions with all parties to identify issues, contentions, and interests to generate possible solutions.
- Oversees and encourages negotiations extending beyond the initial conference through subsequent conversations or additional conferences.
- Facilitates settlement discussions until an agreement is reached or until settlement does not appear to be possible.
- Other duties as assigned.

COMPETENCIES/QUALIFICATIONS
